“Wind and Waves” (from Matt. 8)

“One Touch” (from Mark 5)

Chinese New Year . . .

Begins on Sunday, February 14, 2010. Chinese New Year celebrations include visits to relatives and friends. New clothes are usually worn and the color red is liberally used in all decorations. On the Eve of Chinese New Year, supper is a feast with families. Early the next morning, children receive cash gifts in red paper envelopes. “Happiness”, “wealth”, and “longevity” are wished to all!

Up-coming Special Days:

February 12th = Valentine Party Day

February 15th = President’s Day ~ School Holiday — Day Care Open

February 25th = Open House, 6:30 p.m.

We will be learning these skills in Language Arts during the month of February . . .
